CLASS HISTORY

One Indian summer day in 1951, a new freshman tribe was enrolled in the W.C.H.S. Nation. We were husky Warriors, lots of brains and bronze! ? The peace council had never seen nobler squaws and braves.

The new tribe was welcomed the first day at the Pow-Wow by Chief-Medicine-Man Wellman, and became official members after the proper tribal ceremony performed by the senior chiefs. Our entire band was painted with war point and submerged in the sacred waters of the canal!

After these ceremonies the tribe was given the official name of papooses and allowed to select our chief... Papoose Roy Eckerdt. Miss Beyda, Mr. McDonald, and Mr. Ralston served as our peace councilors for many moons.

With our colossal float we helped our braves win the pigskin victory over Evanston.

To the call of the wind, and the sweet smell of the flowers, we disbanded for the summer. Just as quick as we began enjoying our picnics and fishing trips, smoke signals were sent out that school had begun again. From all parts of the country, our tribe returned to the Nation with the rank of sophomores. We chose as our leader in "52", Brave Buddy Crosby and Jerry Smothermon.

As usual the spring weather makes a young brave's fancy turn to-- HOOKY! On returning, however, they were met by Chief-Medicine-Man Wellman, who by extracting a written copy of the Declaration of Independence from all the victims, drove away the evil spirits which had brought this about.

That was the year that our tribe continued the custom of setting aside a week during which the squaws escorted the braves. They called this Tollo Week.

The following year the tribe obtained the title of juniors, a position of power and esteem. Big Chief "Geronimo" Cook was chosen as our leader. In token of being members of W.C.H.S. tribe Indian Nation we selected our class rings.

As a climax to our all ready shiny reputation, we held a feast entitled, "Moonlight and Roses" in honor of the senior chiefs and afterwards a war-dance called "My Blue Heaven". Much wampum was spent!

It was a big event when our tribe stepped in to fill the place of the departed Senior who had journeyed to their Happy Hunting grounds. Again "Big Chief "Geronimo" Cook was unanimously chosen to lead our tribe. This was a year of great activity: The honor of complying the annual and paper was given to our worthy tribe. You Can't Take It With You, the senior play, was a heap big success, when presented in February. In April the members of our tribe were treated to a banquet and a war-dance by the warrior juniors. Sneak day a very happy occasion because the chief seniors overjoyed took a vacation, leaving the rest of the school still struggling with their studies.

After we had taken advantage of all the many opportunities offered by the W.C.H.S. Nation, our tribe now folds up their wigwams and moves on to the Happy Hunting Grounds.

CLASS PROPHECY OF 1955

Jackie-"Hi Pat! I haven't seen you in a long time."

Pat- Well, I haven't been around, I've been traveling for the past ten years. My goodness, here comes Bill.

Bill- Hi, this is a pleasant surprise. Let's go to the Blue Flamingo and get something to eat.

Jackie-We'd love to. It doesn't seem possible that it's been 15 years since we graduated.

Bill- Why there's Colleen Harkins really going to town singing "Blues in the Night."

Pat- Just look at all those men swoon!

Jackie-Have you kept in touch with many of the kids that were in our class?

Pat- Why yes, you remember Alice Porter, don't you? Well she owns the "Kiss me, Kiss me, Kiss me" lipstick manufacturing company and James Hillberry is the chief lipstick taster and judge.

Bill- I was listening to the radio the other day and heard "To be or not to be." I just knew it was Tom Howard. The critics simply raved when he played the lead in Hamlet.

Pat- He must have raised that ham on the farm.

Bill- When I was in Norway, I saw the Olympics. I was flabbergasted to see Helen Carlson representing the United States as the Pogo Stick Champion. As I was getting off the boat, I saw Alfred Griffin. He is taking Goose Tatum's place on the Globe Trotters.

Jackie-Wait till you hear what I saw. As I was driving in the country, I saw someone picking flowers in his petunia patch. I just about ran into a telephone pole when I saw it was Howard Cook!

Pat- He always was a petunia smeller!

Bill- While on the boat I saw a good old Wyoming T. V. program.

Jackie-Oh, you mean Willie Weber's Wild West Show.

Pat- I saw it, too. When Laurie Weber came bucking out of Shoot No. 9, I could see why he's call the "Broomstick Buckaroo!"

Bill- I about flipped when Myrna Sisco came out on a galloping horse doing the Charleston in the saddle.

Jackie-There were thousands of people there. Donnie Schaff made millions with his Horse and Buggy Taxi Service.

Pat- Hold on to your hats. Donna Palmer just moved into our neighborhood, the poor dear. She is always scrubbing floors and her kids just muddy them up again.

Bill- She always was the typical housewife.

Jackie-When I visited Washington, I saw the distinguished-looking president, John Edison Wyman. Did you know he has just added a new balcony onto the White House? I also saw Artie Adams, the Governor from New York. As we went touring the grounds we saw a janitress, either washing windows or filling water balloons. You can imagine my surprise when I saw that it was Sheila Fredricks!

Pat- On T. V. the other night, I saw Sonya Read playing a new 35 foot piano. Her music is simply out of this world!

Bill- And did you know that James Fare has been pirouetting in Pavlova's Dancing School for Prima Donnas? His toenails no longer scratch the floor.

Jackie-Jimmy Toler is now the President of the Stretchy-Wetchy Girdle Company. His best model, Joan Watson, has been modeling his famous girdle, the Sub-Atomic, 5-way stretch.

Pat- When I was in Paris, I went to David Laird's Salon. His slogan is "Be Beautiful with Mud Facials by Laird." He really can throw the mud.

Bill- Irma Hanneman, the teacher from America, won an all-expense-paid trip to Europe. She uses the very latest, an eight-inch, diamond-studded cigar holder. All her clothes are from Howard's Originals. Gordon specializes in matching pink, lavender, and chartreuse suits for men and women.

Jackie- Dortha Decker has a Hot Tamale Stand in Gay Mexico by the "Kill them or Die" Arena. She almost got arrested for shooting at the bulls with a slingshot. As I went into the arena, I saw Mary Lou McKamey, the famous matador, fighting a ferocious bull. When the fights are over, Ronald Bihr ejects the bulls from the arena. He can throw the bull further than anyone in Mexico.

Pat- On one of my trips back to America, I saw a huge blimp piloted by Gene Mercado. He was advertising Nami Numoto's Broadway show-house. I took in her show when I was in St. Louis. I was just in time to see Meta Wilson's fan dance! Also on the program was the famous trapeze artist, Anita Roberts. She can turn a triple somersault in mid-air without bending her knees.

Bill- Well, the other day I saw the famous Hollywood pair, Tony Curtis and Sally Schlothauer, they made a striking couple pushing a fruit cart down Hollywood and Vine.

Jackie- You remember Dian Forbes? She has a Hospital for Pets in Meeteese. She is doing real well with her striped salamanders, albino skunks, and pink hoot-in-nannies.

Pat- And what about you Jackie Wolf? Are you a famous stunt girl? I hear that you jumped 300 feet into a barrel of Charles Paris' product, pink champagne.

Jackie- Oh by the way, I got myself a pair of Mary Jean Harvard's plastic pastel shoes the other day. They're just the rage in Gebo now.

Bill- I read in the paper where Jackee Stalcup, the big game huntress just bagged her 33rd. elephant in the deepest Africa. In a near by native village Jerry Schyrack teaches cannibals how to play football, while his boss lady cooks the stew.

Jackie- I had the pleasure of meeting that handsome Jim Vannoy, who was recently voted Mr. America. He was being interviewed by Bill Cheney, the announcer at Station A.H.C.

Pat- What does A.H.C. mean?

Bill- Don't you know? Always hear Cheney. I was at the hospital founded by Harold Light, the multi-millionaire. I saw Susan Hoy and her head nurse Leroy Abbott after they had just disposed of another patient.

Jackie- Well, that's the long and short of that story! I was shocked to hear about Shirley Huffman of the secret police fracturing her big toe while she was chasing the notorious bandit, Black Jack-Kelly Cotter.

Pat- I always thought she would join the North West Mounties. She was always after the men.

Bill- One of my neighbors, Stanley Packer, just perfected an atomic shotgun to protect his uranium claims.

Jackie- Can you guess what is first on the hit-parade now? LeRay Coggins' "Little Girl Fur-r-r Away." Curtis Hunt recorded it and has sold over one-hundred million recordings.

Pat- Yes, and on the other side he sings "My Dog has Flees."

Bill- Do you know that Larry Coppock is still single after all these years? He's working at John Anderson's "Lonely Hearts Agency".

Jackie- On my way to my summer home in Hawaii, my stewardess was none other than Peggy Brazelton. I went via Bob Fritzlers "Fly While You Can Airlines".

Pat- Jerry Smothermon has reached his goal. He now owns all the oil wells in Texas. Even though they are now dry, he keeps his chief toolpusher, Ronald Miliken, busy counting the empty barrels.

Bill- One of June Tanaka's best customers is Howard White, the well-known scientist. When he isn't working he likes to hobo around the country and eat June's blueberry pies. Her bakery goods are the most!

Jackie- Since the revival of Broadway show business, Franklin Ribble and Judy Miller are really hitting the high spots with their soft shoe dance.

Pat- Oh, I saw one of their acts in the Metropolitan Hall in New York, which is now owned and operated by Carl Hergert, the former sheep herder.

Bill- Leon Hall just patented his Original "Paint Jobs for Cars". You remember his first don't you?

Jackie- Clarice Hefeneider, the senator from Wyoming, just won the proposed bill on "Should we sell toothpicks without a 10% tax?"

Pat- I talked to the archeologists, Ann Johnson and Delores Paxton, the other day. Their latest finding was the bones of an African Road Runner in Iowa.

Bill- He sure traveled didn't he?

Jackie- Joe Heagney is taking up where Einstein left off and is now working on the "I" Bomb. He blew out all the windows and half of the outdoor plumbing in his huge laboratory.

Pat- Lorna Barnett just built a baby sitting agency on top of the Pendergraft Penthouse. Barbara's building is a paradise for the families of Carol Fay Halberts and Gayle Tolman Shaw.

Bill- Every day when I go to town to get a cigar, I see Leroy Clark, the Park Avenue streetcleaner leaning over his pushbroom.

Jackie- He always did want to be an airforce pilot.

Pat- He is. He piles it here and piles it there.

Bill- He's always looking at the "Blue Skirt" across the street. Oh, don't get me wrong it's the Wine Celler of Ronald Marshall. Ronald specializes in Fine Wines and Perfumed Snuff.

Jackie- Have you ever been over to Leroy Mink's Wrestling Arena? Well, last night Mary Ann Allred, known as the "Hammerlock Kid", won her match hands down.

Pat- When I was watching a basketball game at Southern Cal., I saw Clifford McNutt, one of the cheerleaders flipping all over the floor.

Bill- He didn't have so much vim but he was really heavy on the vigor.

Jackie-Bill Perry is a well-known model now; he models "Prissy Pants", only for the elite.

Pat- The Psycopathic Hospital in Utah is now headed by the famed Roy Eckerdt. He has been having trouble with his top nurse Connie St. Clair and her secretary, Jo Christy. It seems one of the patients has them convinced that they are the Bowery Boys.

Bill- David Bertsch is always busy in his Mom's kitchen, trying to brew up a gargle which will repel women.

Jackie-Pat Smith, is it true that you work in Leo's Sweet Shoppe while he watches your five little goodies?

Pat- I read where John Howard, the movie actor, was putting his footprints in the sidewalk in front of Grauman's Chinese Theatre. He was so busy posing for pictures he got stuck. Robert Quintana's construction crew blasted him out in a hurry. No damage done.

Bill- David Hamilton is going to receive a gold watch for being, "Outstanding Bookkeeper of the Year". Janet Fogleman will present it as she is the president of the "Adding Machine Union".

Jackie-We went to the races last week and saw a real thriller. Alverna Miller won the Silver cup for her ride. What a Jockey.

Pat- Oh, look who is at the table!

Bill- Who?

Pat- Hean Harris. He just divorced his seventh wife yesterday. He charged her on the grounds of cruelty. What a black eye!

Jackie-He never was a one-girl man. Well, kids, I really must run. It's been wonderful talking to you.

Bill- It's been almost like a Class Reunion. Sure am glad I ran into you.

Pat- I've an appointment. Maybe we'll see each other again some time.

All- Bye!

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of 1955, being of sound minds, do hereby bequeath our last will and testament; thus revoking all others made by us at any previous time.

ARTICLE I

We, the class of 1955, do leave a package of kleenex to each teacher of dear W.C.H.S. to use solely for the purpose of drying their tears as we depart from these halls.

To Mr. Wellman, our superintendent, we leave the comforting knowledge that there will never be another class quite like ours.

To Mary, a friend indeed, we leave a duplicator to write all the excuses on.

To Miss Beyda we leave a copy of "A Man Chases a Girl Until She Catches Him". Good Luck!

To Miss Cook we leave a new desk. She seems to have worn the other one out by sitting on it.

To Mr. Ralston, who interred W.C.H.S. with us, the senior boys leave their extra fishing worms.

To Mr. Selmer we leave a football team with a 210 pound line and a 190 pound backfield.

To Mr. Swartz we leave a new supply of H Cl and Na Cl to make up for all we wasted in Chemistry.

To Miss Stuka we leave a group of Thespians who will attend all the meetings.

To Mr. Lowe we leave some hair restorer for his high forehead. This is so it won't get so sunburned.

To Miss Mundy we leave a bottle of Suntan lotion so that she'll tan instead of burn.

To Mr. Aggers we leave a team that will be more interested in basketball than they are girls.

To Miss Williams we leave a pair of earmuffs to drown out the screeching chairs in the Home Ec. room.

To Mrs. Worsham we leave a group of students who will get their books in on time.

To Mr. Wells we will a quieter study hall. Do you think that this is possible?

To Mr. Roberts we leave a place to play his intramurals.

To Mrs. Chastain we leave a bookkeeping class that will get their chapters and study guides done and have them in on time.

To Miss Thomas we leave a new car so that she can practice her driving at her own risk.

To Miss Scahill we leave a pep club that will pay attention at drill practice.

To Miss Hockenbeamer we leave students who are artists.

To Mr. Pittenger we leave a Life Insurance Policy to be used when driving with his women students.

To Mr. Collier we leave the hope that next years seniors will be as talented as we were.

To Mr. Montgomery we leave an escalator so he won't have so many stairs to climb.

To Mr. McDonald we leave a quieter trig class.

To Mr. Townsend and Mr. Sutherland, our custodians, we leave a magnet that will pick up paper.

ARTICLE II

We, the senior class of 1955, do make the following eighty-five (85) separate and individual wills:

Leroy Abbott leaves his long legs to Donald Bertsch.

Artie Adams wills his ability to change girl friends to his brother, Gordon.

Mary Anne Allred and Alverna Miller leave their long, lasting friendship to Lola Kaiser and Glenda Stanbro.

John Anderson leaves his love of cameras to Jimmy Goff. Keep snapping Jimmy!

Lorna Barnett leaves her seat in English to next years seniors.

David Bertsch wills his mathematical ability to Bob Coons. Now you can be a physicist Bob!

Ronald Bahr leaves his love of parties to Dubby Maxwell.

Peggy Brazelton leaves her bookworm to anyone who's lucky enough not to have to study.

Helen Carlson leaves her job at the Kerby Theatre to Kathy Ullrich. Keep at it, Kathy.

Bill Cheney doesn't will anything. He's taking it all with him.

Jo Christy wills her quiet, sophisticated ways to her sister, Mabel! (What!?)

Leroy Clark is going to take his "crazy-legs" with him to the army.

Lee Ray Coggins leaves his singing ability to George Ribble. Keep up the good work George.

Howard Cook has decided to leave his brains and bronze to none other than Leonard Bashtord. Don't worry Leonard, there's plenty.

Larry Coppock leaves his bookkeeping ability to Mrs. Chastain. She can give it to the less fortunate ones next year.

Kelly Cotter is going to leave his curly hair to Bob Engelman. Just keep it natural Bob!

Dorthea Decker wills the fenders of her Cadillac to Chuck Clare. Just for show Chuck!

Roy Eckerdt leaves his car to whoever thinks that they can handle it.

Clara Elder wills all of her out-of-town boyfriends to Ruth Flagler. Seems Clara wants a new one!

Jimmy Fare leaves a lock of his naturally curly hair to Lanny Anderson. Put it to use, Lanny!

Carol Fay, Gayle Tolman, and Toulia Catsimanes leave their recipe on "How to catch a husband" to the less fortunate senior girls.

Janet Fogelman leaves her lack of height to Don Scoggin. Coach ought to have a good team with that added height.

Dian Forbes leaves her ability to make the boys sit up and take notice, which she inherited from Joanne Hammond, to Colleen McKeon.

Sheila Frederick leaves all her brains to W.C.H.S. Don't be stingy, there's plenty to go around!

Bob Fritzler leaves his girl to the Romeos of W.C.H.S. for another year.

Alfred Griffin leaves his place on the basketball team to his brother, Dick. Let's keep it in the family Dick.

Leon Hall leaves his modern up-to-date paint jobs to Jerry Miller.
These are for your car.

David Hamilton leaves his crutches to Norman Clark. Seems he's following David's footsteps!

Irma Hannaman leaves her peaches and cream complexion to Buddy Snyder so that he can tone his down a bit.

Colleen Harkins leaves her voice to Joyce Pearce. We don't think that she is going to need it though.

Dian Harris leaves her ability to get good looking men to the rest of W.C.H.S.

Dean Harris leaves his fishing pole to Bobby South. They say that it is magic Bob!

Mary Jean Harvard leaves her natural red hair to Carolyn Ullrick.
Now you won't have to use dye Carolyn!

Joe Heagney leaves his ability to get along with Miss Cook to Ruth Russell.

Clarice Henderider wills her beamy smile and bubbling personality to Kathy Cotter. As if this gal needs it!

Earl Hergert leaves his chicken judging ability to Dale Horel. Confine it to the feathered kind only, Dale.

James Hilberry leaves his favorite mule to Beverly Walrath. Maybe she can teach it to play the piano!

Gordon Howard leaves his ability to woo women to Scott Johnson.
Look out girls.

John Howard leaves his and Carolyns private corner in the library to Don Scogin and Utahana Godfrey.

Tom Howard leaves his acting ability to Sonora... Just to Keep it in the Family!

Susan Hoy leaves her interest in nursing to Nancy Mackey.

Shirley Hatman leaves her office of F.H.A. treasurer and her ability to collect dues to Mary Fujikawa. Good luck, Mary.

Curtis Hunt wills the whole school to anyone who wants it. Come, come now, don't you?

Ann Johnson leaves all her worries and work along with a box of aspirins to next years annual editors, Donna Graff and Sandra Faus. Good luck girls!

To next years student council president, Mickey Day, David Laird leaves his poise and self-assurance.

Harold Light leaves his ability to write poetry to any boy who's looking for a way to catch that girl.

Mary Lea McKancy leaves her diploma to her brother, Jimmy. This is just in case!

Clifford McNutt leaves his pink wardrobe to Lyle Geis. Now don't make 'em clash Lyle.

Ronald Marshall leaves to the junior boys all the broken hearts of his secret admirers.

Gene Mercado leaves his ability to sleep in English to anyone who can get away with it.

Judy Miller leaves her musical ability to the clarinet section. Now there shouldn't be so many squeaks.

Ronald Milliken wills his shyness around girls to Bill Cameron. Just remember, they won't bite.

Lee Roy Minks leaves his car to Wesley Glass for more up to date transportation Wesley.

Nami Numoto leaves her personality and ability to make friends to any new comer to W.C.H.S. next fall.

Stanley Packer leaves his ability to leave the girls along for Coach Aggers to distribute among his basketball players.

Donna Palmer leaves her love 'em and leave 'em ability to Loree Ferguson.

Charles Paris leaves his meek, modest, and bashful ways to Eddie Ujifusa.

Delores Paxton had something real special to will, but she decided to keep it instead.

Barbara Pendergraft wills her quiet ways to none other than Randy Rideout.

Bill Perry leaves his little black book to Calvin Chastain. Seems that Bill has found that one and only.

Alice Porter leaves her athletic ability and her office as F.H.A. president to Phyllis Fausset. Carry on, Pete!

Robert Quintana leaves his pepsodent smile to Bob Fernandez.

Sonya Read leaves her 120-word shorthand certificate to those who are less fortunate in obtaining theirs.

Franklin Rubble leaves his ability to stay out of trouble to Dean Palmer. Think you can do it Dean?

Anita Roberts leaves all her baby sitting jobs to her sister, Alta.

Donnie Schaff leaves his school books to Eluid Leyva. Don't worry Eluid, there're brand new, they've never been used.

Don't get excited girls, Sally Schlothauer leaves Lloyd--but only for one year.

Jerry Shryack leaves his irresistible charm to the Gable twins. Think that you can handle it?

Myrna Sisco would leave her height, but she hasn't much so she is going to keep it.

Pat Smith leaves her symbols to Jimmy Wilkinson to help fight off the girls. They're big enough Jim.

Jerry Smothermon leaves his football, basketball, and track uniform for his brother, Terry, to fill.

Jackee Stalcup leaves her cute personality to all the gloomy Gus's of W.C.H.S. Let's see it put to use!

Connie St. Clair leaves her bottle of Super X Blonde Rinse to Doris Huffman. Just in case, Doris.

June Tanaka leaves her quiet ways to Norma Hillberry. Down Norma!

Jimmy Toler leaves what size he has to Earl McPike. We decided that he could use a little.

Jim Vannoy leaves his good looks to Tom Kerby.

Joan Watson leaves her curly lashes and her eye-lash bobby-pins to Louie Walrath. So much better to wink with, Louie!

Willie and Laurie Weber leave their "Ag" trips to Mr. Ralston. Now you can be a tourist too Mr. Ralston.

Howard White leaves his first chair in the band to Dubby Maxwell. Carry on Dub!

Meta Wilson leaves her long tresses to Elizabeth Hall. We think that this gal needs some.

Jackie Wolf leaves all her pep and energy to the up-coming cheer-leaders. There's enough here for everyone!

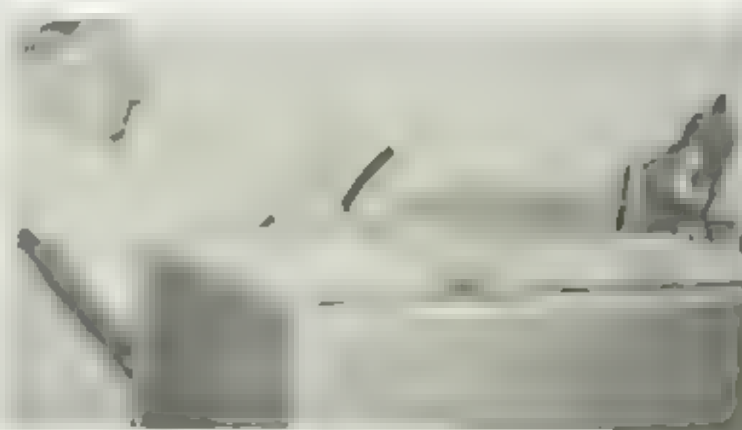

John Wyman leaves his ability to sleep in American Government class and still get good grades to next years class.

The gifts listed above are registered both in sorrow and joy in sincere faith and under due process of law, and so witnessed and signed on this nineteenth (19th) day of May of the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-five (1955).
